

November 12

- Good morning, everyone! It's Wednesday — and you know what that means! It's time for our final musical clue before the big reveal this Friday! You've had hints about friendship, popularity, and clever characters... but here's your last piece of the puzzle: This story takes place at a high school where fitting in isn't as easy as it looks. There's a lot of pink, a lot of drama, and a lot of lessons about being true to yourself. Think you know what it is? Talk it over with your friends — and be ready for the official reveal this Friday! You don't want to miss it!
- In Sports...On Monday night, your 7th grade single A basketball team traveled to Fischer for their first game on the road. The Wildcats were met with a tough Falcon team. They fought hard through the whole game but unfortunately came away with their first loss with a final score of 33 to 26. Your Top Cat for the game was Cal M., who led the Wildcats with 12 points and 5 rebounds. Tyler S. also stepped up on the offensive end, with 10 points on the night. It was a tough battle, but the Wildcats look to bounce back tonight as they take on the Gregory Pioneers.
- Attention all 7th and 8th grade girls! The girls basketball intramurals for 7th and 8th graders begins on Monday morning, Nov. 17th. Join us in the gym at 7 A.M. for some nonstop fun. Specific dates/times and a google sign up form are available on the WJHS website. Questions—see Mrs. Denius
